

President Tells Adenauer Assets Up to Congress

Eisenhower Does Not Approve Ideas Now Under Consideration—Hopes Fair Solution Can Be Achieved

Washington, Aug. 10 (AP)—President Eisenhower says none of the proposals in Congress to restore about 500 million dollars worth of seized assets to West Germany have his administration's approval so far, but he hopes "a fair, equitable and satisfactory solution can be arrived at."

The President's statement in a letter to West Germany's Chancellor Konrad Adenauer was made public by the White House today along with the message from Adenauer to Eisenhower urging return of the assets.

The properties were seized from German owners during World War 2.

In his letter, the President said "the solution of this complexity of problems lies with the Congress."

James C. Hagerty, presidential press secretary, made public the Eisenhower-Adenauer exchange after being asked for comment on a published report (New York Times) saying the United States "has quietly informed the West German Government not to expect the return of seized assets valued at about 500 million dollars."

Final Paragraph Noted
Hagerty called the attention of newsmen to the final paragraph of Eisenhower's letter saying solution of the problem rests with Congress. The President added:

"Several bills dealing with the subject are now pending there, and members of my cabinet and other government officials have appeared and expressed their views. None of the measures thus far proposed has the approval of my administration, but you may be assured that this problem is receiving earnest consideration and it is my hope that a fair, equitable and satisfactory solution can be arrived at."

Hagerty said that on the basis of those Eisenhower statements to Adenauer, "it would, I think, not be correct to interpret the letter of the President as a complete turn down of the chancellor's request." He added that the President's statements were "not so intended."

Search Is Renewed

Lake Placid, Aug. 10 (AP)—A 100-man posse on the hunt since last Thursday for a bushy-haired gunman who wounded three policemen veered south today to search for an unknown assailant who shot and wounded a fisherman near here last night. State police directing the search through the Adirondack woodslands said they did not know whether there was any connection between the new shooting and the wounding of the Lake Placid officers. But the incident spurred a flurry of fresh activity in the manhunt headquarters. State police threw a cordon around the area where the shooting occurred—near the Mt. Van Hoevenberg Olympic bobsled run about four miles southeast of here.

Postal Boss Says No Cash Provided

Summerfield Declares He Will Continue Fight for Justice

Washington, Aug. 10 (AP)—Postmaster General Summerfield says the House has failed to provide any way of meeting the 200 million dollar a year cost of a new 7 per cent postal workers' salary boost it voted yesterday. Summerfield renewed his attack on the postal pay bill yesterday after the House had overridden administration objections and passed it by an overwhelming 351-29 rollcall tally. The postmaster general pledged to "continue this fight for justice for all postal employees."

He obviously was pinning his hopes on the senate where there are indications the measure may be changed to trim the pay boost to 5 per cent and to blanket in Civil Service workers as well. The House bill would benefit half a million post office employees. Administration leaders have predicted that President Eisenhower would veto the postal pay bill, if it reached him in its present form.

Financial Program Is Supported

Mendes-France Given Huge Majority, Also Special Powers, by Assembly

Paris, Aug. 10 (AP)—The French National Assembly today approved by a massive majority Premier Pierre Mendes-France's economic and financial recovery program.

The deputies not only gave Mendes-France a new vote of confidence but also accorded him large special powers to deal with France's financial situation until March 31, 1955.

It was another victory for the premier who has given the premiership almost two months ago on a three-fold program of reaching a truce in Indochina, working out a compromise on EDC and giving France's economy a thorough going over.

The unofficial tally gave the vote as 362 to 90. The Communists who had previously supported hostile members of the popular Republican movement.

Truce Is Achieved

A truce in Indochina has been achieved. The French cabinet is slated to take up tonight the touchy question of this country's approval of the European defense community treaty prior to a meeting of EDC participants in Brussels on Aug. 13.

Mendes-France, in asking the vote of confidence on his financial program, told the Assembly reforms must be launched to awake a nation he described as "enveloped in a big sleep, dreaming of the past and having nightmares filled with fear about the future."

He sought the confidence vote to strike down a host of amendments deputies wanted to tack on his economic proposals.

Mendes-France said the government must step in to give marginal enterprises and reconstruct them to profitable production. He said that France "has been able to keep going since World War 2 only because of U. S. aid and that this help cannot be expected to be permanent."

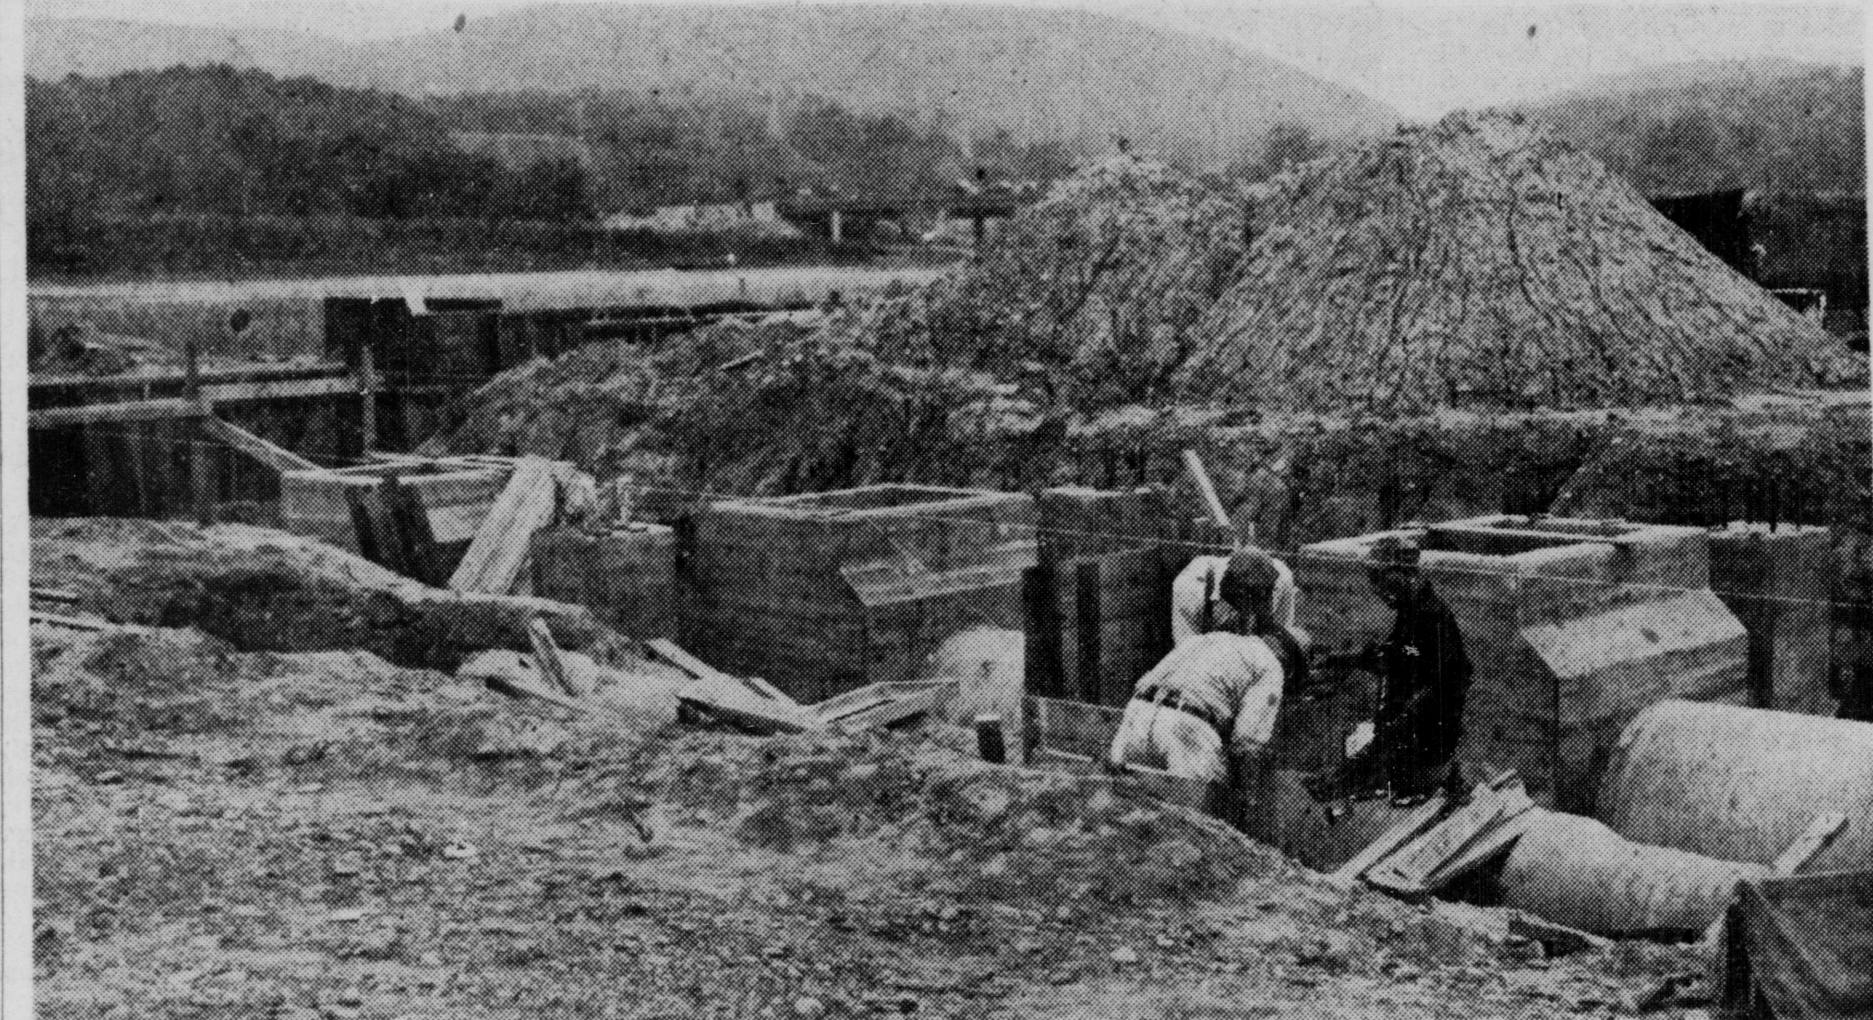

Have Let Down Barriers

Other European countries, he continued, have let down their barriers to permit a much greater extent of free trade than France. He said that France had profited by this but that if France does not move to let in products from other European countries, then their doors will be closed to French exports.

Mendes-France declared the aim of his program is to restore the health of the French economy (Continued on Page 17, Col. 3)

Touhy Denies He Plans Revenge

Judge Says Another Must Be Held to Blame for Perjury

Chicago, Aug. 10 (AP)—I'm just looking for peace of mind. * * No, I'm not thinking of revenge. * * When you've been in the penitentiary for as long as I have, you forget about revenge.

These were some of the comments yesterday of Roger (The Terrible) Touhy, one of the nation's top gang leaders in the prohibition era, who had just won his freedom from prison.

The 55-year-old grey-haired Touhy, one-time arch foe of the late Al Capone, had served more than 20 years in Stateville Prison for a kidnapping which Federal Judge John P. Barnes termed a hoax.

Touhy was sentenced in 1934 to 99 years in prison for the kidnapping in 1933 of John (Jake the Barber) Factor, one time internationally known confidence man. He received an additional 199 years for his part in his escape from prison with five other convicts in 1942.

Had No Part
But Judge Barnes ruled that Touhy had no part in the "alleged" kidnapping, which he said was a hoax and engineered by Factor to forestall his extradition to England to face prosecution for a confidence game charge.

Feeney Barge Carries 1,200 Tons of Steel for Work on Footings

Steel piling to be driven as footing for the Kingston-Rhinebeck bridge arrived early today at the bridge site near East Kingston.

The piling, shipped here from the Bethlehem steel mills at Lackawanna, arrived on the barge, Rose M., of the Reliance Marine Transportation & Construction Corp., at about 4 a. m., for the Merritt-Chapman & Scott Corp., contractors for the bridge's sub-structure.

To Load Second Barge
Bernard A. Feeney, of Reliance, said the barge carried about 1,200 tons of steel, and another barge was to be loaded tomorrow at Lackawanna.

It was indicated today that the contractor plans to start driving the piling for the piers later this month.

Preliminary work for the building of the piers has been under way for several weeks and a dredge has been operating in the river clearing the bottom in the area where the river piers are to be built.

Dewey Hails Project

Massena, Aug. 10 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey hailed the St. Lawrence power project as a great example of international cooperation today at the start of work on the 600-million-dollar hydroelectric plant. There is no likelihood that its vast dams, linking the United States and Canada, will be outmoded by atomic power plants for 30 years or more, he assured in a speech prepared for the project's ground-breaking ceremonies.

Business Blocks Razed by Blaze

Beverly, Mass., Aug. 10 (AP)—A pre-dawn fire, believed of suspicious origin, destroyed three business blocks, including two banks, early today with damage estimated at a million dollars.

Deputy Fire Chief C. Frederick Dooling said he will ask the state fire marshal to investigate. He said it was the fifth fire at the Beverly National Bank, one of the country's oldest, in the past year.

Beverly, on the Massachusetts north shore, is 18 miles north of Boston. A dozen firemen were treated for smoke inhalation.

Nebraska Contests Hold Top Interest In Three States

Candidates to Be Selected for Senate Seats; Also Active Are Idaho, Arkansas

By The Associated Press

A complicated series of primary contests in Nebraska—one a Senate race pitting Republican Gov. Robert B. Crosby against six opponents—tops party balloting in three states today.

Also on the slate are an Idaho primary, an Arkansas runoff and a Democratic Convention in Delaware. These will determine:

1. Whether Idaho's "singing cowboy," former Sen. Glen Taylor, can resume a political career that faltered after he bolted the Democratic Party in 1948, to run for vice president on the Progressive ticket.

2. Whether Arkansas Gov. Francis Cherry can win a second term in a Democratic runoff.

3. Whether Democratic Sen. J. Allen Frear, Jr. of Delaware can win renomination over the opposition of some party leaders who contend he's too "conservative."

To Name Candidates

Though each state has only two senators, Nebraska will name candidates for three Senate seats—a rare circumstance caused by the deaths earlier this year of GOP Sens. Dwight Griswold and Hugh Butler.

The feature race is for the regular 6-year term starting next January, when Griswold's term would have expired. Gov. Crosby and Rep. (Continued on Page 17, Col. 4)

Mrs. Crane Killed In Auto Collision

Mrs. Chadbourne Niece and Housekeeper Are Victims

Falmouth, Mass., Aug. 10 (AP)—Mrs. Frances Crane, 66, former wife of the late Jan Masaryk, foreign minister of Czechoslovakia, and her housekeeper-companion, Mrs. Juliet Wells, 81, were killed early today in a head-on automobile crash on Sandwich road.

Injured in the collision were two airmen, Robert Riley, 24, of Cambridge, and Wilbur D. Raush, 23, of Joplin, Mo. They were in the second automobile.

Mrs. Crane was married to Masaryk in 1924 and the marriage was annulled in 1931. She was the daughter of the late Charles R. Crane, millionaire diplomat who was U. S. minister to China in 1920-21.

Masaryk died in a plunge from a window in Prague on March 10, 1948. It was never determined officially whether he was pushed or jumped.

Mrs. Crane was the niece of Mrs. Emily Crane Chadbourne, of Stone Ridge.

Nation Will Continue With Plans

Secretary Says Report May Be Coming on Alliance for Asia to Combat Reds

Washington, Aug. 10 (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles said today the United States, preparing to go ahead with President Eisenhower's atom-for-peace plan in any case, has asked Russia whether its turnaround of the program is final.

The secretary described Russia's latest note on the matter as 99 per cent negative, and said the State Department has now asked Moscow whether the Soviets want it to be treated as 100 per cent negative.

Dulles told a news conference that private talks with Russia's Foreign Minister Molotov, along with formal notes, show very fundamental differences in the American and Russian approach to the problem.

Considering Prospect

At present, Dulles said, the U. S. government is actively considering the prospect of beginning talks at an early stage with other countries which might join the plan both to contribute materials and share the benefits. He did not name the countries.

The President set out his proposal in an address Dec. 8 before the United Nations. He called for a world bank of fissionable materials to be set up for peaceful purposes which would be available to all countries. The idea is that it would study ways of harnessing the atom for the benefit of mankind.

On other subjects, Dulles: 1. Said he hopes an announcement may be forthcoming later this week spelling out the plans to create a Southeast Asia alliance against communism. He said there was a possibility one of the "Colombo powers" might join.

This group, taking its name from a meeting in Colombo, Ceylon, includes India, Ceylon, Burma, Indonesia and Pakistan.

Situation Near Chaos

2. Described the situation in Southern Viet Nam as nearly chaotic but said he had no information which suggested the Communists might try to seize power from the non-Red regime.

3. Said Japan's worsening financial picture is a grave problem but that it may be possible to relieve this somewhat by opening up new trade markets to the Japanese and selling surplus American farm products to them at cut-rate prices. He said, however, he did not think it would be necessary to resume direct financial aid to the Japanese.

4. Said he was hopeful Communist China would agree to free American fliers and civilians still in Red custody. The United States is actively pursuing this problem through British diplomats in Peking.

5. Declared American support for Prince Wan of Thailand for the post of president of the forthcoming fall session of the United Nations General Assembly. Dulles said former Dutch Foreign Minister Eelco Van Kleffens would make an excellent president and that the United States would vote for Wan because he has shown top ability in handling Far Eastern problems which may dominate the assembly's meeting.

Little Effie Goes Steaming to Port

Little Effie, a 26-foot, steam-driven whaleboat left Catskill yesterday for completion of its New York-to-Albany trip up the Hudson.

The former whaler, now owned by Capt. Laureen McCready, head of the engineering department of the U. S. Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, passed Kingston Sunday and was observed by the many bathers at Kingston Point beach.

A coal burner, the steam engine once powered the cruiser Half Moon, owned by George Krum, of Catskill. Krum sold the engine to Capt. McCready to power the whaler. The 37-foot Half Moon last sailed about 14 years ago.

Little Effie stopped over at the Plush Boat Yard over Sunday night and left for Albany yesterday morning. With Capt. McCready were Comdr. Clifford Sandberg and Lt. Comdr. H. O. Travis, both of the merchant marine academy.

Testimony was completed today and decision reserved by Special City Judge Harry Gold in two actions tried jointly, one involving a counter claim, after a trial which lasted four days in city court.

The proceeding brought by Incoro, Inc., of Washington avenue, against Francis S. Brainard, Jr., of Lindenhurst, was for eviction of the latter as a tenant because of alleged non-payment of $1,400 in rent. It was claimed that the tenant paid $600 of a $2,000 rental for use of the property and failed to live up to an agreement for the balance. The tenant interposed a counter-claim for work done for the landlord on a coffee machine and for space he claimed Incoro, Inc., occupied, and for other items.

Contend Claim in Excess
This claim, it was contended, was in excess of the $1,400 sought as balance due on the rent, and the defendant, as counter-claimant, indicated a willingness to settle for the amount sought as balance for the rent.

A second action by Incoro, Inc., for eviction as a hold-over tenant and for failure to comply with terms of a lease, was tried simultaneously.

The action was on last Tuesday and Wednesday, was resumed yesterday and continued today. It was an unusually long one for city court. The court has normal jurisdiction in cases up to $1,000, but this one was permitted for trial because it was a summary for eviction of a tenant.

Attorney Arthur B. Ewig appeared for Incoro, Inc., and Seymour Werbalowsky for Brainard.

Maryon Placed On Probation in Stolen Auto Case

New York, Aug. 10 (Special)—A Saugerties man who drove a Kingston resident's stolen car over state lines was given a two-year suspended sentence Monday in U. S. District Court here.

The defendant, Stewart I. Maryon of Saugerties, admitted the charge on May 24. He was sentenced today by Judge Gregory Noonan who placed him on probation for the two year period.

Maryon was charged with taking a 1952 Plymouth sedan, belonging to Cornelius Cassidy of 248 Smith avenue, and driving it from Kingston to Fort Dix, N. J., where he was stationed at the time.

Maryon's attorney said today that an army "buddy" later borrowed the car and held on to it for some nine months. When the "buddy" was caught he acknowledged that the car came from Maryon.

The Saugerties man is a veteran of the Korean conflict in which he was wounded. He appeared in court today on crutches due to a muscle injury.

He was given an undesirable discharge from service, his attorney said, because he made a nuisance of himself asking to be sent back overseas.

Assistant U. S. Attorney B. P. Atterbury said, at the time the charges were filed here, that Maryon had a record of several AWOL arrests, including one which cost him a six-month sentence in the Fort Dix stockade. Maryon is married and has one child, four-months old. He is now awaiting action by a Newburgh grand jury on a stolen car charge.

Rifle Fire Reported

Berlin, Aug. 10 (AP)—American officials reported separate, heavy outbursts of rifle fire today at the borders between the American and French sector borders of Berlin and the Soviet zone. A spokesman said 8 to 18 shots were heard in the area where the U. S. sector meets East Germany and 10 or 15 shots at the French zonal border. Cause of the firing was not established but such outbursts usually are fired by East German or Russian guards attempting to thwart escapes from the Soviet zone to the west.

Jelke Reported Wed To Sylvia Eder, 25

New York, Aug. 10 (AP)—Mickey F. (Mickey) Jelke has reportedly married and settled down to a domestic life while awaiting outcome of the state's efforts to make his vice conviction stick.

The bride is identified as Sylvia Eder, 25, the blonde model found in Jelke's apartment two years ago when he was arrested there and held for trial on compulsory prostitution charges. The couple are said to have married in Georgia six weeks ago.

New York newspapers quoted friends as saying the newlyweds were living a quiet life in a four-room Bronx apartment. Their address was not given, however, and neither Jelke, his reported bride nor her parents could be reached for comment.

Convicted at Trial

Jelke, 23-year-old heir to an oleomargarine fortune, was convicted of pandering after a sensational trial, part of which was closed to the press and public. The Appellate Division of the State Supreme Court later upset this conviction, saying the judge erred in closing the trial during presentation of the prosecution's case.

Jelke is now free on bail while the state carries the case to the Court of Appeals in an attempt to have this reversal ruled out. If the reversal stands, Jelke will be entitled to a new trial.

Miss Eder was arrested with Jelke and held for a time as a material witness. She was later released, however, and took no part in the trial. The state's star witness in the case was Pat Ward, a confessed prostitute.

DREAM FULFILLED

Long before American steel experts began to worry seriously about depletion of the nation's high-grade iron ore reserves, it was known that rich deposits lay untapped in the frozen wastes of northern Quebec. Getting at them seemed a remote dream.

Yet just a few days ago, the dream was realized. The first trainloads of ore were hauled 360 miles south over a line that had been painfully hacked out of the wilderness. At the rail terminus of Seven Islands on the St. Lawrence River, the ore was dumped into ocean-going vessels for shipment to American steel mills at Philadelphia and Baltimore.

Later on, a good share of the ore will be put aboard lake barges for transport to Great Lakes steel centers. When the St. Lawrence seaway is developed, bigger vessels can handle the lake traffic.

By 1957, the flow of iron ore from the Ungava region will approach 10 million tons a year. The total reserve there is a staggering two billion tons, enough to fight four wars the size of World War II.

This country can be thankful that so bountiful a store lies within the protection of North America's continental limits. The opening of this field is tantamount to taking out a new insurance policy against the hazards of enemy depredation.

Though Baltimore and Philadelphia are being served from Ungava by coastwise shipping, in time of war the Quebec ore presumably could be shipped mostly by rail to eastern centers—however much the cost.

This reserve plus new production of American ores from low-grade taconite in the once-rich Minnesota region could go far toward feeding the U. S. industrial machine in an emergency. Obviously it would be harder to protect over-water supply lines from newly developed ore fields in Venezuela.

Tribute should be paid to the men who made Ungava a reality. Some $250 million was spent. The project's managers organized the biggest civilian airlift in history to bring in construction materials, food and other items for the 6,000 workers who built the mining site, laid down the railroad and erected port facilities.

This was a notable example of free enterprise at its most energetic and imaginative. We cannot forget that before a dream can be realized, it must be dreamt. Men like Secretary of the Treasury George Humphrey, a Cleveland industrialist, and Jules R. Timmins had the vision to see Ungava's potentialities.

So long as projects of this sort can be brought to fulfillment, America's industrial greatness is secure.

Out of the mouths of babes come thoughts inspiring; into them go things assorted.

WE HAVEN'T REACHED THE TOP

Has the American economy reached its full potential? From now on will it remain relatively static?

The answer is a dramatic No, in the view of Arthur F. Burns, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers. He is known as a man who is conservative about forecasts. But he recently said that in the brief period of five years it will be possible to increase our annual physical production by $80,000,000,000—from its present level of $360,000,000,000 to $440,000,000,000 or even more.

Here is a new and authoritative testimonial to the vitality of what is variously called the capitalist system, the profit system, and the free enterprise system. Whatever we call it, no other system has done nearly so much for so many—and no other holds such bright auguries for the future.

Style-conscious milliners claim women's hats this fall will "follow the course of least resistance in their ease of line." Men are likely to do the same.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

HO CHI MINH

The new figures which emerge in so many places these days upon our consciousness and into history were not born yesterday. To understand them it is necessary to search out their pasts; their ideas as students; their political associations; their training. Only then can we understand who it is with whom we deal because the mature man is only an older boy.

For instance, I have never been able to understand General George Marshall's lack of knowledge of Chinese personalities since he was in Tientsin, as the executive officer of the 15th Infantry, from 1924-27 when he was a lieutenant colonel. This was the period of the union between the Kuomintang and the Communists, leading to the split during Christmas week of 1926-27. These were years of revolution, of civil warfare; of the marching of troops and of protective measures taken by foreign troops, including the 15th Infantry. The United States sent additional Marines to protect American lives and property under General Smedley Butler and some were stationed in Tientsin and nearby Peking. The original leader of the Chinese Communists was Chen Tu-shu who was replaced by Chu Teh and Mao Tse-tung and Li-Lih-san. Surely, General Marshall, when he was in Tientsin, read at least the local newspapers printed in English, which gave full accounts of these events. Chou En-lai, when he was in China in those years, lived in Tientsin. Similarly, it is astonishing that Ho Chi Minh is made out to be a man of mystery. In those years, that is between 1924-27, he spent considerable time with the Chinese Communists in Canton and in the drive northward. His original name was Nguyen Ai Quoc and he is an Annamite. Since boyhood he has been a revolutionist, spending many years abroad in China, England and France. He actually joined the Communist Party in Paris, and was sent to Moscow in 1923 for an indoctrination course which is essential for all Communists who are to become leaders in their own countries. He was for a time in 1924, employed in the Soviet consulate in Boston, a position which is to be explained by the fact that many important Communists are citizens not only of their own countries but of Soviet Russia as well. Most of the years between 1924 and 1930, he spent in Asia, principally China and Siam, working for the Revolution.

The Viet Minh movement, which Ho Chi Minh heads, started as a united front operation designed to bring together all elements in Indochina—conservative and Communist—in an anti-French effort to end colonialism. It was naturally popular, as the French have always been disliked in Indochina, and received support from many anti-Communist elements. Few realized, at first, that it was a Communist movement, directed by the Third International and that Ho had been especially trained for it.

With such a history, it is difficult to understand why the United States Office of Strategic Services employed Ho Chi Minh as an agent. The OSS was designed to establish a super-intelligence agency to provide our government with correct information on all subjects. How could Ho Chi Minh provide correct information when he was an agent of Soviet Russia, who had worked for the Kremlin in France, the United States, China and Siam and who had been especially prepared to establish and lead the Communist revolution in Indochina? The OSS has been accused of having been infiltrated by Communists and the CIA has been accused of retaining too many Communist spies.

It is still not too late to study what the OSS actually did during its short existence and to find the reason why Communists were employed by it. General Mark Clark might go into that. Particularly, it would be of some interest to know why such a character as Ho Chi Minh, with a revolutionary history since 1910 when he was 18 years old, was employed by the United States. General "Wild Bill" Donovan may have an explanation and the American people ought to have it.

Instead of fewer Congressional investigations, we ought to have more of them because it is essential for the American people to know why, when we thought we had won a war in 1945, we know in 1954 that we lost it. Why? (Copyright, 1954, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

That Body of Yours

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

WHY CHILDREN MISBEHAVE

The blame for delinquency in children has been variously ascribed to "bad companions," "poor heredity," "broken homes," "poor recreation facilities." Now a theory, at least new to most of us, has been under close study and some remarkable findings have been made. This is that it is the parents who, sometimes unwittingly indirectly encourage the child in his wrongdoing.

Drs. A. M. Johnson of the Mayo Clinic and S. A. Szurek, University of California School of Medicine tells us that they have made studies of delinquent children in apparently "normal" families of good reputation for the past 10 years and have concluded it is a defect in the make-up of the parents that has led to much wrongdoing on the part of their children. We must remember, also, that these children were not from slum areas or from juvenile "gangs." Such antisocial behavior as fire-setting, stealing and truancy was considered.

It was found that some parents, although scolding a little or giving some light punishment to the bad child, were really obtaining a certain satisfaction out of what the child was doing. The parents had themselves impulses to wrongdoing which they succeeded largely in controlling but when their children proceeded to do what they themselves inwardly wished they had done, they were gratified.

It was often found that there will be "scapegoat" in some families, one who will get blame for all the mischief done. This might be a young boy who was born when a girl was badly wanted or perhaps the younger of two sons who on the surface resembles the younger of two uncles who was "spoiled and no good from the start." An adopted child may be particularly suitable to play such a role as the wrongdoing can be blamed on "heredity" rather than to parental approval.

Parents who bring their "bad" children for treatment to the psychiatrist often tell the story of their child's naughtiness with a little unconscious smile of approval of their child's impulsive and daring behavior. Children are masters at the art of sensing approval on the part of their parents, even if it is not put into words, and will often risk the chance of punishment to please mother or father. Of course, the child does not understand why he is punished when he knows that the parent is secretly pleased. For example, a father brought in his 6-year-old boy who persisted in running away at frequent intervals. The father rightly feared for his son's safety during these escapades. Yet he was always greatly interested in the stories the child had to tell each time he was found and prompted the child to tell of his adventures to the doctor, assisting him when the child forgot a detail. He was unaware apparently of his own thwarted desire to travel but the child was quick to see that his adventures really pleased his father although he was punished for them.

These research workers advise parents to examine closely their own feelings when a child misbehaves.

And So on and So on, Down Through the Years

Larsen's Washington News Notebook

Washington — (NEA) — Maj.-Gen. Claire L. Chennault will make a sensational proposal soon for containing communism in Asia. He will propose that his wartime "Flying Tigers" be revived.

Chennault believes that in less than 90 days he could form a new International Volunteer Group. That was the official name under which the Tigers served Chiang Kai-shek against the Japs. He says he already has enough applications from American fliers to serve as the nucleus.

His proposal will be published in the Reader's Digest, which also will carry a statement by the retired general highly laudatory of NEA Correspondent Fred Sparks' "Operation Blood" dispatch. The Sparks article, originally distributed to newspapers by NEA Service, was reprinted in the August Digest.

Chennault will say that his plan for reviving the Flying Tigers supplements the overall ground-air strategy for containing communism outlined by Sparks.

Sen. Wayne Morse (Ind.-Ore.) has a good-luck charm which he sports during Senate filibusters. It's a bright red rose on his lapel. It all started when Morse made his record 22½-hour speech last year against the Administration's tideland oil bill. At that time a Portland, Ore., teachers' union sent him a rose as a token of appreciation.

During the long ordeal Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D.-Minn.) bolstered himself practically entirely on milk. He had a standing order for a glass every four hours. In the midst of a speech on Saturday Morse stopped to drink some milk. His friends and colleagues have kiddingly accused him of trying to boost Minnesota's dairy consumption.

For some reason, news photographers who have covered filibusters report, the senators are more agreeable to posing for gag shots than at any other time. One senator who was asked to pose shaving said:

"Anything is okay, short of a picture of me cutting my own throat with a razor, of course."

The shooting down of the Russian planes by carrier based Douglas Skyraiders has added new fuel to a hot debate inside naval aviation circles over propeller-driven planes versus the jets.

There is a strong group within the navy which claims that the Bureau of Aeronautics has gone too far in putting jets on carriers. They argue that the prop engines can carry a far greater load and can handle far more assignments than the faster jets which have less payload.

The Douglas Skyraider, this group contends, is probably the perfect carrier aircraft, combining a speed of close to 400 miles per hour with the ability to carry a load equal to that hauled by World War 2 B-17 bombers. They point out that the Skyraider was the only plane capable of handling one of the most important bombing missions of the whole Korean war. That was the destruction of the big electric power dams in North Korea.

Offices of the Voice of America have become a clearing house for gags from behind the Iron Curtain which poke fun at the Communist regime. Here are the latest ones:

In Hungary they like riddles. "What weighs 125 pounds, wears rags and eats acorns?" is the question.

You—after the five-year plan," is the answer.

In Czechoslovakia they tell of special inducements to obtain new members for the Communist party. One recruiting agent was told by the party secretary:

"If you can get two new members, we will reduce your taxes by half. If you can get five, you won't have to pay anything. If you can get 10, we'll give you a certificate stating that you have never been a member of the Communist party."

Sen. Robert Kerr (D.-Okla.) had trouble with his teeth during his recent successful campaign to win the renomination to the Senate. And he had to delay his return to Washington for treatment.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

New York, Aug. 8.—Max Ascoli came here as a refugee from Mussolini's Fascist Italy and after varied politico-intellectual activity, married a daughter of the late Julius Rosenberg, the Chicago mail-order Croesus, and became publisher of a thing called The Reporter. His politico-intellectual activities included a hitch at the new school for social research, which subsidized the sojourn in our midst of Eleanor Roosevelt's Communist protégé, Hanns Eisler.

Hanns is a brother of Gerhard Eisler, who was described as a Soviet spy and took it on the lam aboard the Soviet-Polish steamship Batory. Hanns also became a lammerist after a gaudy career as a music-master among the Hollywood Reds, re-discovered.

Max Ascoli's magazine, the Reporter, got a strange plug a few months ago on the letterhead of Brentano's, the big book-selling house. Brentano's has a big store in New York, another in Chicago and one in Paris. Like Welch of the grapejuice and Heinz of the 57 kinds, Brentano has been a landmark to millions for many years.

I never inquired but I supposed there must have been a Mister Brentano. John T. Flynn, the battle-scarred, inveterate Red-baiter, assures me that there was. The Brentanos were of Italian stock, Mr. Flynn says, but the founding father must have passed to his reward long ago, for Brentano's in Paris was an institution among Americans as far back as the first war.

Last May a man in Saybrook, Conn., wrote me that he had been on Brentano's mailing list for years until he got this plug for Max Ascoli's Reporter magazine. He then wrote them to take him off, adding, "I thought their business was selling books, not propaganda."

He enclosed the form letter. It said: "Dear Reader: We have just completed a special arrangement which makes it possible for us to offer our customers, at an unusual, reduced price, one of the fastest-growing and increasingly talked about magazines in the U. S."

There is much too much in this dodger for me to handle here so I will pick specimens. For instance, it says Brentano's customers have a very lively interest in the "world of ideas, political events, social developments in lands across the sea and in the constantly changing American scene."

And: "It is with just these subjects that the reporter deals. . . . You may have heard of its remarkable expose of the China lobby." The term "China lobby" refers to the pro-American forces of Lt. Gen. Albert Wedemeyer, Lt. Gen. Claire Chennault and Alfred Kohlberg, a

Every Cent Hoover Ever Got From U. S. Has Gone to Aid Fellow Men

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Aug. 10.—Herbert Hoover has just reached his 80th birthday—and he is still going strong. He continues to serve his government without personal recompense. Even in the four years when he was President, he took no salary for himself, but gave most of the $300,000 to charity and returned the rest to the Treasury of the United States. Every dollar he has ever drawn from the government has gone to help his fellow man.

The key note of Mr. Hoover's life has been service. He gave up his work as a mining engineer to take hold of the great task of organizing the relief of Belgium after it had been devastated in World War I. He served as food administrator of the United States during the First World War under President Wilson, and organized relief work for the German people afterwards.

Today he is serving President Eisenhower, as he did President Truman, in the thankless, unspectacular and tedious job of reorganizing the machinery of the federal government.

Herbert Hoover had the misfortune of being President when the biggest economic depression in world history started in Europe and swept the United States. Political opponents abused him as responsible for it all, and that was why he lost reelection in 1932 to Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Campaign orators for the Democratic party have not missed a chance every election year since that time to bring out the ghost of a so-called "Hoover depression" to persuade voters to eschew the Republican party. Even as late as a few weeks ago, Adlai Stevenson took occasion to berate Mr. Hoover for the "failures" of his administration. Based on a recent letter to the Washington Star, signed by "Old Reactionary," who came to the defense of Mr. Hoover, here is a list of some "failures" of another kind:

"Mr. Hoover failed to repudiate the promise on government promissory notes (the notes promising payment in gold)."

"Mr. Hoover failed to try to pack the Supreme Court of the United States (a reference to Mr. Roosevelt's unconscionable effort to add six justices so as to circumvent the majority of the nine whose decisions he didn't like)."

"Mr. Hoover failed to appeal for votes in a presidential campaign by promising a 25 per cent reduction in the federal budget which was then 'honored' by an increase of 300 per cent."

"Mr. Hoover failed to claim the right to seize private property under 'inherent powers' (a reference to Mr. Truman's seizure of the entire steel industry which was later declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of the United States)."

"Mr. Hoover failed to place the government in competition with private business and failed to put his political fortunes above the letter and spirit of the Constitution a reference to the deception whereby the TVA was built originally as a flood-control project and then became a symbol of government ownership of electric power plants)."

"Mr. Hoover failed to humiliate any of the top generals of the United States Army for advocating an aggressive instead of a do-nothing policy in a 'police action' (a reference to Mr. Truman's dismissal of General MacArthur in the Korean war)."

"Mr. Hoover failed to waste the taxpayers' money on boondoggling (a reference to so-called relief projects under the Roosevelt Regime) and did not sell himself into political slavery for a campaign contribution of $500,000 or bow to the dictates of labor bosses to secure a nomination (a reference to the loan of $500,000 by the CIO during a political campaign of President Roosevelt)."

"Mr. Hoover failed to bundle up a lot of government documents to sell as a book at a huge profit to himself (a reference to Messrs. Roosevelt and Truman)."

"Mr. Hoover failed to ask Congress to pay the bill for a museum to house his marvelous collection of war stuff—he paid for it himself. The former President built at Rapidan—near Washington—a resort for fishing and recreation and gave it to the government. He did not go on fishing trips, on government warships accompanied by a fleet of destroyers."

Such a chronicle contains some facts little known to the American people. It hasn't been his generosity on material things but his generosity of time and energy and spirit—his selfless dedication to service for his fellow man—that has made the Quaker President an honored and respected citizen who, at the age of eighty, is still working for others. Apparently the speech-making during the campaign jolted him out of his teeth.

"After a thorough examination," says Kerr, "my dentist informed me that my teeth had been jarred to the roots. I guess it's well that the campaign broke off when it did, so I could give my jaws a little needed rest."

Communist friend of Felix Frankfurter, was the dominant spirit of London U.

Mr. Griffiths and Mr. Schwartz both were in Europe. The ranking authority in this great propaganda mill therefore was Miss Lillian Friedman, a "buyer" whose office lay one flight up. But a young lady outside her door said she was busy at least an hour and then picked up a ringing phone. This call sounded good for 12 innings and anyway it didn't seem to me that a "buyer" could meet my requirements. So I went down and braced the young clerk again. He said the only other one who could speak for the firm was Mrs. Laub, the assistant buyer. She was apathetic about Mrs. Laub and she said she had just breezed out into the heat and traffic of Fifth avenue. Nobody knew when she would be back.

Mr. Kohlberg said, "M-m-m! Well! Maybe things begin to explain themselves."

We don't know whose money is in Brentano's. But Max the cat got Leonard's tongue. Ascoli's wife has an awful bad from her old man's fortune. And she and Max, the lucky dog who certainly did well in the promised land, have been discovered on the lists of contributors to the political slush funds which are sent into the several states by Arthur J. Goldsmith, the Coney Island dragon of the Waldorf Tower. These people aren't satisfied with two senators from their own states but use claudine funds in a claudine way to try to lick the likes of Pat McCarran in Nevada and Styles Bridges in New Hampshire.

As George Sokolsky reported a few days ago, New Hampshire has been "blanketed" with thousands of copies of the Reporter blasting Senator Bridges in a campaign by the oppressed and pathetic refugee from Italy to nullify the franchise of the citizens.

Camden, N. J., Aug. 10 (AP)—The RCA Victor television has slashed the suggested retail price of its 15-inch color television set from $1,000 to $495 to clear out stocks before introducing its 21-inch receivers. Vice President Henry G. Baker said yesterday that RCA would demonstrate its tri-color 21-inch kinescope tube Sept. 15. He said a simplified circuitry would result in reduced costs. Baker said rebates would be made to all those who have purchased the 15-inch console models.

PLEASE EVERYONE

A mother writes: My daughter is going to be married soon and her fiancé's family do not approve of anything strong to drink. Our friends and relatives, on the other hand, would think it very strange, if we didn't serve at least one glass of champagne in which to toast the bride and groom. Would it be proper to serve champagne knowing his family disapprove. If not, what do you suggest as a substitute?

Since you are giving the wedding and you are the host, you should serve what you consider correct. You should, however, have ginger ale or other non-alcoholic beverages for the "drys" so that they will not have to drink the champagne.

Avoid Any Discussion

Dear Mrs. Post: If someone in a group has made a disparaging remark about a certain race, or religion, and one of the persons in the group happens to be of that race, or religion, how can a hostess tactfully handle the situation with the least embarrassment to both parties?

Answer: The only thing you can do is to change the subject; say, "Please, that is one subject I do not want to discuss."

A Working Husband Needs Sleep

Dear Mrs. Post: I have an unmarried girl friend who comes to see me on occasion in the evening. She works during the day and the only time she has for visiting is in the evening and I do enjoy seeing her very much, but she never leaves until late. I would like to know if it is necessary for my husband to see her home. My husband likes to go to bed early during the week and it would mean his staying up past bedtime in order to take her home.

Answer: If she came by herself and he didn't go and fetch her, he is not expected to stay up late in order to take her home.

Pie and Cheese

Dear Mrs. Post: When cheese is served with pie, is it proper to pick up the piece of cheese with the fingers, or should it be eaten with the fork.

Answer: There is no rule as to whether you eat it with a fork, pick it up with your fingers or whether you eat it at all.

Is it good manners to break crackers into soup? How should baked potato be eaten? Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. Answers to these questions are included in leaflet E-16. Church Assembly: 1

The Significance

A meeting starting next Sunday in Evanston, Ill., will determine whether centuries-old divisions among Christian religions can be made smaller or must grow still wider. Here is the first of four articles on the Assembly of the World Council of Churches, which some churchmen have called the most important religious event since the Reformation.

By GEORGE W. CORNELL

Evanston, Ill., Aug. 10 (P)—Most of the world's churches are moving toward a fateful cross-road.

Which way they turn can mean either closer ties or wider gaps in the centuries-old divisions of Christianity.

The answer hinges on the Assembly of the World Council of Churches opening here next Sunday.

"It will be a critical test," said Dr. W. A. Visser't Hooft, the council's general secretary. "We shall see which is stronger—the force of unity or the force of division."

The meeting will be the most widely representative Christian gathering ever held on the American continent.

May be Most Embracing

In range of subjects, purposes and participation, it may well be the most comprehensive Christian assembly ever called.

All things considered, said Dr. Franklin Clark Fry, head of the United Lutheran Church and vice chairman of the council's central committee, "it is the most crucial interchurch meeting in Christian history."

Fundamental theological questions, buried through the years in the ashes of denominational cleavages and regional aloofness, will be raised in the first such broad attempt to cement Christianity's scattered forces.

"The assembly will deal with subjects that go to the very heart of the faith," Dr. Fry said. "It is daring thing to do."

"The outcome can determine the lasting strength of the whole movement to bring the churches closer together and increase their effectiveness."

Will Take Part

More than 1,500 representatives from 161 denominations with approximately 170 million members in 48 countries on both sides of the Iron Curtain will take part in the meeting.

Dr. Henry P. Van Dusen, president of Union Theological Seminary and chairman of the council's U. S. study committee, described it this way:

"The most truly ecumenical assemblage of the followers of Christ who have ever met 'in one accord in one place' in the 20 centuries since His life and death and resurrection."

Although the world council met once previously—at its founding six years ago in Amsterdam—it is digging for the first time into basic and potentially shattering—or consolidating—matters of faith.

Dr. Samuel McCrea Cavert, the council's American secretary, said he believes that the churches, "instead of finding themselves far apart, will discover that they are on common ground to a far greater extent than they have known."

Started Present Movement

It is such discoveries, on less ticklish theological matters, that started and spurred on the present-day "ecumenical movement"—to rebuild a firm alliance of the world's Christian churches.

That huge project, reckoning with centuries in which churches have been breaking up and going their hard, separate ways, had its tiny beginnings at a missionary conference in 1910 at Edinburgh, Scotland.

It was dreamed, discussed and designed at succeeding meetings of Christian leaders in Stockholm in 1925, in Lausanne, Switzerland in 1927, at Oxford and Edinburgh in 1937. In 1948 at Amsterdam it culminated in the World Council.

The council does not seek to become a world church, or even to arrange mergers, viewing that as the task of individual denominations.

But it does not seek, said Dr. Visser't Hooft, "to be an instrument of the holy spirit for healing our divisions."

Except for the Roman Catholic, nearly every major church will be represented.

Will Not Attend

Although Roman Catholic churchmen have attended some previous meetings of World Council groups, none will be present at Evanston under a ruling by Samuel Cardinal Stritch of the Chicago Archdiocese.

There have, however, been articles and studies by Roman Catholic leaders on the assembly's theme. Said an American Catholic publication, The Pilot: "No true Christian at any rate will look with indifference at the hopes that are set in Evanston."

Whether those hopes find root and spring into new harvests of harmony—depends on a wide field of uncertainties.

There will be varying shades of interpretation on terminology, the differences of theological emphasis accumulated through long isolation from each other, cultural and national prejudices, and difficulties of language translation.

There will be various perspectives of liberal and conservative churches, of old, dominant churches and young, struggling churches in hostile surroundings, of churches in lands that are free and lands that are not free.

Due to doctrinal differences, all the delegates will not even take part in the same Communion services. But they will pray together, talk together and hope together—to find a truer way.

"Something is going to happen at Evanston this summer," said the Episcopal Weekly, the Living Church. "But just what is going to happen is anybody's guess."

Transaction Incomplete

Pittsburgh (P)—A man carefully selected an assortment of groceries at George Parker's store. The bill came to more than $10. Instead of handing over the money, the man asked Parker—at gunpoint—to open the cash register. Parker refused. The fellow put his revolver in his pocket, picked up the bag of groceries and fled from the store.

License Is Withheld On Disney 'Prairie'

New York, Aug. 10 (P)—A two-minute sequence depicting the birth of a buffalo has led the New York State Division of Motion Pictures to withhold a license from Walt Disney's latest movie, "The Vanishing Prairie."

The producer may appeal the decision, Mrs. Helen H. Kellogg, the division's acting director, said yesterday in explaining the action. She said no appeal had yet been received.

Mrs. Kellogg said the division, which reviewed the film last week, generally has refused to permit scenes depicting birth.

A Disney spokesman said the sequence would be cut if necessary to obtain approval. He added that the Roman Catholic Legion of Decency gave the film a top rating. Other state censor boards have approved the film or are in the process of reviewing it, he said. The film will be shown only in states permitting it, he said.

The true-life adventure film is scheduled for its world premiere here Aug. 16.

The New York State Division of Motion Pictures is a branch of the State Education Department, and the department can overrule the division's censors on appeal.

Forest Fires off 18% in '53

Thanks to the care and thoughtfulness of Americans, fewer and fewer of our forests are being lost to fire. But the job of eliminating man-caused forest fires is far from done. Forest fires still burned over 20,000,000 acres in 1953, and 9 out of 10 of these fires resulted from down-right carelessness. This carelessness meant the destruction of vast areas of timber, watersheds and recreation. Help to reduce this shameful waste. The next time you are in or near the woods, "Remember Only You Can Prevent Forest Fires."

Woman Holds Off Bull

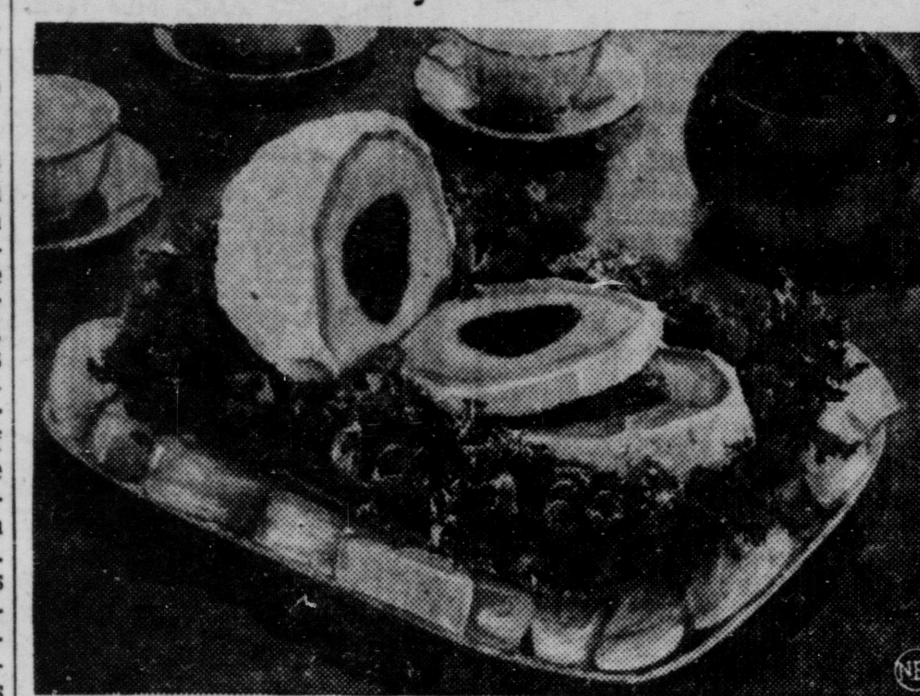

Lebanon, Conn., Aug. 10 (AP)—Mrs. Rose Stegal, 58, visiting here from New York, fought off a snorting, 1,500-pound bull with her umbrella yesterday. She had been walking with her niece in a field near her sister's home when the bull charged. The niece ran screaming. Mrs. Stegal, unable to make a fast getaway, closed her umbrella, sidestepped and jabbed the bull. The bull turned and charged again. Mrs. Stegal sidestepped and jabbed. After the furious bull had made several passes and missed, Mrs. Stegal's brother-in-law came to the rescue. He jumped into his car and sped toward the bull. The bull raced into the woods and disappeared. Then Mrs. Stegal fainted.

Summer is the cantaloupe and raspberry season. Combined in cool, crisp salads and desserts, these two favorite fruits will do a lot to keep both your budget and temperature down.

All fruit salads need to be well chilled. Served on a bed of "ice circles" made in your new automatic refrigerator they will not only stay fresh but will keep their eye-appeal on the hottest summer day.

Cantaloupe and Fresh Raspberry Salad

(Serves 5 to 6)

One medium-sized cantaloupe, 2 teaspoons unflavored gelatin, 2 tablespoons cold water, 1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice, 1/2 cup sieved raspberries (1 cup whole fresh raspberries), 3 tablespoons sugar, 1/16 teaspoon salt, 6-ounce package cream cheese, 3 tablespoons water or milk, escarole and curly endive, whole fresh raspberries for garnish, "ice circles."

Peel cantaloupe and cut a 2-inch slice top from a cantaloupe. Scoop out seeds and drain. Soften gelatin in cold water and lemon juice. Place in hot water (not boiling) to dissolve. Add to sieved raspberries along with sugar and salt. Chill until the mixture begins to thicken. Pour into the seed cavity of the drained cantaloupe.

Also fill the cavity of the slice cut from the top of the cantaloupe with the raspberry gelatin. Wrap in aluminum foil. Chill several hours. Frost with cream cheese mixed with the water or milk. Chill until ready to serve. Serve in slices on a bed of escarole and curly endive with mayonnaise. Garnish with whole raspberries. When ready to serve place platter on a larger platter on a bed of "ice circles."

Three-Fruit Salad

One head Bibb lettuce, 2 ripe fresh pears, 6 fresh nectarines, 2 cups Persian or watermelon melon balls, 3 tablespoons fresh lemon juice, 1/4 cup salad oil, 1 teaspoon sugar, sprigs of mint for garnish, "ice circles."

Arrange Bibb lettuce on a salad platter. Peel and core pears and cut into eighths. Cut nectarines in half and remove pits. Pile melon balls on greens in center of platter around which arrange sliced pears and nectarine halves. Combine lemon juice, salad oil, and sugar. Serve over salad. Garnish with sprigs of mint. Place salad platter on a larger platter on a bed of "ice circles."

TOMORROW'S DINNER: Spaghetti with meat sauce and grated cheese, crusty bread, butter or margarine, cantaloupe filled with raspberries, iced coffee, iced tea, milk.

Will Televis Speech

New York, Aug. 10 (AP)—President Eisenhower's address before the American Legion national convention in Washington, D. C., on Aug. 30 will be televised between 12 noon and 12:30 p. m. (EDT). The speech will be carried at that time by NBC, CBS and Dumont television, the networks said last night. ABC said it would carry the address on its television network from 9 to 9:30 p. m. (EDT).

Detectors Save Saws

Ft. Jackson, S. C. (AP)—Mine detectors, the kind they use in wars, will be used to save timber saws from damage. Workers will take the gadgets into 12,000 acres of timberland at this army post to detect shrapnel embedded in some of the trees in range-firing areas. Dr. Leo Labyak, the Ft. Jackson forestry chief, estimates thousands of dollars in saw damage will be avoided.

WOODSTOCK NEWS

Gallery Presents New Group Show

Woodstock, Aug. 9—Visitors to the Ganso Gallery are presented with a wide range of style and high caliber of work now shown by members of the gallery group. The current new exhibition features the work of Howard Mandel whose stay abroad on a Fulbright Fellowship produced the exciting Fortune Teller and Positana done in Italy. Another high spot in the show is William Pachner's Head and Old Woman and child which again reveal his deep concern about people. Pachner's enriched color adds a new maturity to his work and a forthcoming one man show at the Ganso Gallery in January will show the artist's amazing growth in color exploration.

A true favorite this season is the work of Ruth Gikow, whose painting Queen Esther shown last season in Woodstock, was recently purchased by the Childs Hassam fund. Ruth Gikow's Jitterbugs is a thing of life and sparkle and her Girl With Bouquet shows her warm personal style at its best. Reginald Wilson's Tiger Tiger and I Can Fly are unique in their sophisticated simplicity and reveal a sense of humor and original design which make them a dominant feature in the show. Both these paintings have been invited to the Denver Museum for an exhibition this season.

The show is rounded out by the meaningful abstractions of Walter Plate, Joseph Meert and Edward Chavez whose Italian Idyll is a beautifully integrated achievement in color and form. Ethel Magafan and Bruce Currie are represented with new and abstract conceptions of everyday subject matter. Karl Fortess and David Shapiro are painters of mood and emphasize realism without academic overtures. The newcomers to the show, John Atloon and Tobias Schneebaum, bring a fresh note of promise and are being well received by their knowing Woodstock colleagues as well as a discerning audience.

Banat Will Perform

At Maverick Concert

Woodstock, Aug. 9—Gabriel Banat, newcomer to the Maverick Concert Hall, will be the featured artist at the Sunday concert, Aug. 15. The violinist was hailed by the New York Times as an artist with "superb dexterity." Graduate of the Royal Hungarian Academy at Budapest, he played concerts since the age of 12. While in his teens, Banat toured Europe as soloist, and also joined the venerable Georges Enesco in a sonata team. A veteran recitalist at 20, he made a successful debut at the New York Town Hall in 1949. His second New York appearance won multiple critical acclaim in 1953.

Others to Perform

The other performing artists in next Sunday's concert will be Ilse Sass, pianist and Harry Zaratzian, violinist who makes his return engagement.

The works to be performed are Passacaglia (violin, viola) by Handel-Halvorsen; Sonata in D major, Op. 15 (viola, piano) by Paul Juon. Following the intermission Georges Enesco's Sonata in F minor, Op. 6 (violin, piano) and the program will conclude with Leclair's Sonata for violin, viola and piano.

Will Show Movies

Woodstock, Aug. 9—Movies of the 1954 Horse Show, taken by J. C. Van Rijn, will be shown by him at the meeting of the Woodstock Riding Club, Thursday, Aug. 19, at 8 p. m., in the basement of the Dutch Reformed Church.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

Take Tips From Tourney Star

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

The game contract in today's hand was ambitious, but not unreasonable. When the hand was played in a tournament in Long Beach, N. Y., most pairs stopped below game, in a heart contract. They all made 10 tricks, but the only pair that were ambitious enough to bid the game were unlucky enough to encounter the strongest defense.

My colleague, Alfred Sheinwald, sitting West, opened the nine of clubs. This seemed like an unfortunate opening lead, but the fact is that no other lead would have been any better.

The queen of clubs was played from the dummy, and Eli Jaye, East, properly played low. South hastened to draw trumps, since the opening lead might have been a singleton. When declarer led a low trump from the dummy, East played low and South won with the king.

Declarer had to get to dummy in order to lead trumps again. He led a low diamond, intending to finesse dummy's nine. Sheinwald was ready for this play, however, and deftly put in the queen of diamonds. Dummy won with the ace and led a second trump, Jaye winning with the ace of trumps.

East naturally returned a spade, and a finesse lost to the king. West returned the jack of hearts, and East carefully discarded a club.

Now South couldn't get to dummy to repeat the club finesse. As a result, he was compelled to lose one trick in each suit. South actually drew a fourth trump and cashed his high spades, after which he led a diamond to the dummy.

East won with the king of diamonds and got out with his carefully preserved last spade, and South was then obliged to lead away from his ace of clubs and thus give East a trick with the king of clubs.

Most declarers made 10 tricks because West played a low diamond instead of the queen when South began that suit. Declarer properly finessed the nine, driving out East's king. Later on, a finesse of the jack of diamonds brought home two tricks in the suit.

Card Sense

Q—With both sides vulnerable, the bidding has been:
South West North East
1 Heart Double Redbl 1 Spade

You, South, hold: Spade 7, Hearts A-K-J-6-3-2, Diamonds K-10-2, Clubs A-3-2. What do you do?

A—Pass. Since you have substantially more than a minimum opening bid you can afford to await developments. If West raises the spades, you may have to rebid your hearts at a high level, but you can afford it.

Today's Question

The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spade 7, Hearts A-K-J-9-6, Diamonds K-J-10-8-4, Clubs 3-2. What do you do?

Albany, Aug. 10 (P)—Polio cases reported so far this year in upstate New York are running at less than half of last year's rate.

The State Health Department said today that 212 new cases had been reported through Aug. 7 this year, compared with 462 during the similar period in 1953.

Thirty-two new cases were reported last week compared with 57 in the corresponding week last year.

The health department listed new cases in the following counties:

Don't Fix That Horn!

Springfield, Mass. (P)—Many professional musicians play horns and woodwinds that are about to fall apart and they don't want them touched, says Harvey Larose. He's a repair man for all types of orchestra instruments except violins, and has discovered he is wiser not to make any repairs the professionals do not specify. His is an interesting and complicated job because some woodwinds have as many as 400 parts, including tiny screws, he says. Also a good repair man cannot do an adequate job unless he can play the instrument, he reports.

YWCA Announces New Director of Two Club Departments

MRS. MALCOLM SERGEANT
 The new director of the Young Adult and the Teen-Age departments at the YWCA will be Mrs. Malcolm Sergeant of 315 Washington avenue. A comparative newcomer to this city, Mrs. Sergeant moved here in May when her husband joined the Kingston office of Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corp.

Already active in teen-age group work here in Kingston, the new Y director has worked with the junior high group of the Summer Vacation Bible School, both in Bible teaching and in craft work.

Mrs. Sergeant has a background in community activity beginning in the parsonage of her father, who was a minister. With her parents, she attended religious education courses at Northfield, Mass., each summer, a practice which she is continuing, since last summer was her twentieth visit.

Mrs. Sergeant also attended Cornell University as a scholar-pre-med student. Following her marriage to Mr. Sergeant, whom she met while at the university, Mrs. Sergeant became active in community affairs in Rutland, Vt. She was general superintendent of the Sunday school at Rutland Congregational Church and vice-president and program chairman of the Women's Association of the church.

Active in Community Work
 Mr. and Mrs. Sergeant were co-presidents of the Couples Club of the church, and co-presidents of the Parent-Teachers Association.

In Rutherford, N. J., where Mr. Sergeant's work took them next, they formed a couples club "as a way of getting acquainted with new friends," according to Mrs. Sergeant.

In Rutland, Mrs. Sergeant was on the circulation department of the Rutland Herald and an active member of the Eastern Star chapter there. In Poultney, Vt., she belonged to the Federated Women's Club and to both girl and boy scout groups.

The mother of three children, Nancy, 10, David, eight, and Linda, seven, Mrs. Sergeant has definite plans for the program at the Y which she will begin Sept. 1. "Young married women limited in their free time by home and children, may find shared interest with other young mothers," she explains.

Others who participate in the Young Adult Department, the out of school girl and women of the community, are well provided for in her planning. "Many girls, just out of school find it easier to adjust to the less regimented life of a job or just being home if opportunities for meeting others like themselves are open to them," Mrs. Sergeant said. "Single girls need to find new friends as their school chums go off to college or get married," she continued. "They want opportunity to meet a larger circle of both men and women."

Mrs. Sergeant, as over-all director of the two departments, will be assisted by a volunteer staff in carrying out the programs for the year at the YWCA.

LITTLE LIZ

Individuals Will Benefit Largely Through Tax Cut

(This is the sixth of a series of articles explaining how the new tax revision act affects individuals.)

By CHARLES BARRETT
Washington, Aug. 10 (AP)—A tax cut hailed chiefly as a boon to corporations actually will benefit more individual taxpayers than any other one part of the new tax revision law.

Experts estimate almost 10 million persons will pay reduced income taxes next spring because of much faster deductions for wear and tear on new equipment or buildings.

Farmers to Benefit
A farmer can benefit if he gets a new tractor or barn; a grocer or other shopowner can benefit if he buys a new display counter; a lawyer can benefit on books for his law library; a doctor gets a tax cut on new medical equipment; a landlord benefits on permanent improvements to his property; even a writer can benefit if he buys a new typewriter. Altogether, individual taxpayers are expected to get tax reductions from this provision amounting to 73 million dollars the first year, much more later. The same provision will cut taxes on an estimated 600,000 corporations by about 291 million dollars the first year.

You can claim depreciation deductions on buildings or equipment which are used in producing income and which have a useful life of three years or more. You can't deduct, for example, on a home or car not used in business. If the useful life is less than three years, you deduct the cost of the item as a regular business expense but not as depreciation.

Depreciation deductions are spread over the years of useful life of an item. They add up eventually to the total cost of the item. They are deducted from your income, before you apply the tax rate.

The new law permits much bigger deductions on new equipment or buildings in the first years of useful life. That means smaller deductions toward the end of the period of useful life. For millions of taxpayers, it means substantially lower taxes over the next few years.

And you can wind up with a big over-all tax cut if you sell the item before its useful life is over—after taking the big deductions in the early years.

The more liberal treatment applies to new equipment bought after last Dec. 31, or to construction started after Dec. 31. If construction was started before that, but completed later, the more liberal allowances apply only to that part of the construction cost after Dec. 31. The new deductions may be claimed in 1954 tax returns due next April 15.

Used Equipment Out
Note: You can't claim the new deductions if you buy used equipment. The old rules still apply in that case.

Under the old law, generally you figured the useful life of the new item and deducted the cost in equal annual installments over that period. Thus a $10,000 item with 10 years of life would mean a $1,000 deduction each year for 10 years. This is called the "straight-line" method.

Under the new rules, you are given several possible new methods of figuring deductions. The most important are called the "declining balance" method and the "sum of the years' digits" method. They sound frightfully complicated, but they aren't so difficult when you sit down to work them out.

Under the declining balance, first you figure the percentage deduction allowed each year under the old law. In the example above, that would be 10 per cent. Then you double the percentage. In this example, you get 20 per cent.

Applies to Balance
Now, for the first year, you deduct that percentage from the total cost. Thus the first year you get a deduction of 2,000 instead of 1,000. And each succeeding year, you apply that same 20 per cent to the remaining balance of the cost—not to the entire cost. You have already deducted $2,000, so in the second year you would deduct 20 per cent of $8,000, or $1,600. The third year you would deduct 20 per cent of $6,400, or $1,280.

In the first three years under the declining balance method, you would deduct $4,880 instead of the $3,000 under the old law. At a 25 per cent tax rate, that would be an actual tax cut of $470 the first three years.

Under the "sum of the years' digits" plan, the rate of deductions is a fraction. The denominator of the fraction is constant—the sum of all the numbers in the useful life. In the example above, that would be 1 plus 2 plus 3 and so forth up to 10. That gives you a denominator of 55.

The numerator of the fraction starts with the number of useful years, or 10. It declines by one number each year. Each year you apply this fraction to your total cost, to figure the deduction.

Thus the first year your deduction in this example would be 10/55ths of $10,000, or $1,818. The second year it would be 9/55ths of $10,000, or $1,636. The third year it would be 8/55ths, or $1,454; and so forth until the tenth year your deduction would be 1/55th, or only $182.

In this case, your deductions the first three years would total $4,908. This compares with $3,000 under the old straight-line method—an additional deduction of $1,908. If you're in a 25 per cent bracket, that would be an actual tax cut of $477 the first three years.

Still other methods are allowed, but none of the others may exceed the declining balance rate at any one point during the first two-thirds of useful life. You can use the declining balance method for part of the period, and then shift at any time to the straight-line method of deducting your remaining balance of cost.

Glenerie Meeting

A regular monthly meeting of Schneider's Aroma, Deodorized Order of the Skunk, will be held in Glenerie, at Schneider's Hotel, Thursday at 8:30 p. m. All members are urged to attend by Fred W. Budion, secretary, who said that important business will be transacted. Refreshments will be served.

500 FOREST FIRES A DAY

This was our average in the U. S. during 1953. It represents one of America's most shameful wastes, for 9 out of 10 of these fires which burn over 20,000,000 acres were caused by carelessness. They were caused by everyday people who were thoughtless with cigarettes, matches, campfires, etc. These unnecessary fires destroy timber that could have built homes and furniture, watersheds that could have produced water for our homes and industry, recreation areas that could have meant relaxation and fun for many, many people. Yes, forest fires are our most shameful waste. The next time you are in or near the woods don't forget Smokey's warning—"Remember Only You Can Prevent Forest Fires."

Dodger Rookies Slated Tonight

Monday Game Is Postponed Due to Rain

Rain washed out last night's scheduled baseball game between the Dodger Rookies and Recreation League All Stars but was promptly rescheduled for 8:30 tonight at Dietz Stadium.

Officials made the decision to postpone the game in late afternoon when the threat of continued rain was evident.

The Dodger Rookies will present one of their strongest lineups, with two topnotch major league prospects slated to see action.

Mike Weltman, New York city's MVP for 1954, has been signed to a Pittsburgh Pirate contract and Jack Liddy, 6-foot shortstop, is scheduled to join the Philadelphia Phillies in September.

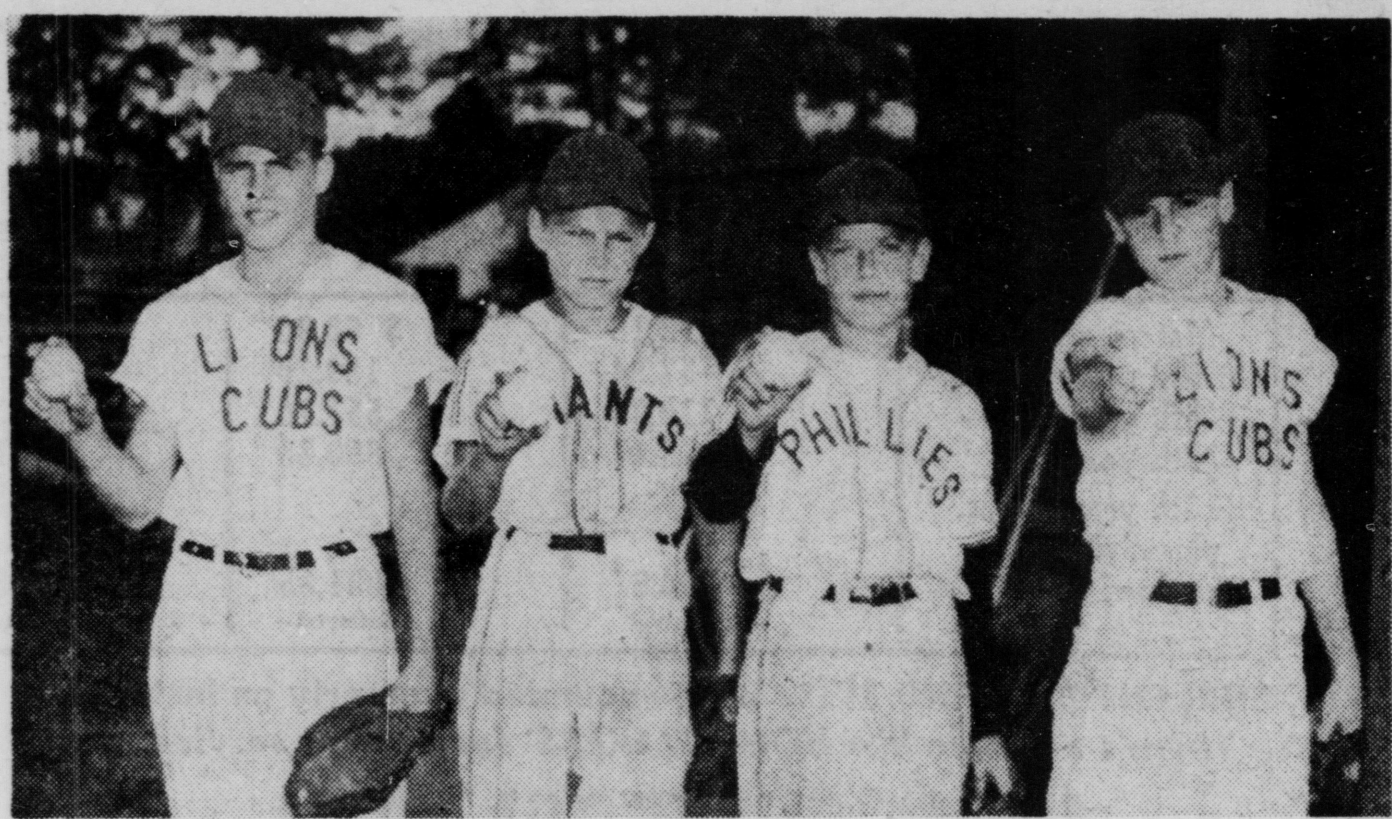

Dancer Ready For Comeback

Saratoga Springs, Aug. 10 (AP)—Native Dancer, idol of racing and television fans, is expected to seek victory No. 21 any day now.

Apparently fully recovered from a foot bruise that has kept him out of action since he won the Metropolitan Handicap at Belmont in mid-May, the Dancer is nearing peak form again.

Owner Alfred Vanderbilt and trainer Bill Winfrey hope to get a tuneup race over seven furlongs Monday at Saratoga. They had been pointing the big grey champion for the mile and three-quarters Saratoga cup Aug. 27. However, the Dancer has gone so good in training there is a possibility he may go in the $50,000-added Whitney Handicap Aug. 21.

THE SCOREBOARD

By BEN PHILEGAR
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

New York made its move early. Milwaukee went into high gear late last month. The question now is: Are the Dodgers ever going to start clicking?

Brooklyn is back with virtually the same team that pulled away from the pack last August and finished 13 games in front. But only rarely this season has it looked anything like the 1953 team.

The door to the top has been left wide open in recent weeks by the first place Giants. After their June surge the New Yorkers have rocked along at a 19-16 clip since the traditional July 4 turning point.

But the Dodgers, who trailed by 3½ on Independence Day, still are three full games behind. They've won 20 and lost 16 while the Braves have come with a rush, winning 24 and losing 10, to pull within 4½ games of Brooklyn and 7½ of the Giants.

Podres Return
Brooklyn hopes to get the answer to its vital starting pitcher problem tonight in Philadelphia. Manager Walt Alston has picked Johnny Podres to open a two-game series against the Phils.

This will be the second start for the little southpaw since an appendix operation. He couldn't make it the first time, lasting only 3 2/3 innings against St. Louis last week.

Dodger supporters are quick to point out the bad year Roy Campanella is having. The big catcher, troubled by an injured hand, is 100 behind his 1953 total in runs batted in and more than 100 points below his batting average of last year.

But Campy mainly was just another gun in what already was the most powerful attack in the league, and his cohorts—Duke Snider, Carl Furillo, Jackie Robinson and Gil Hodges—still are doing all right by last year's standards.

Favored by Schedule
The Dodgers would appear to have a slight break over the Braves and Giants on the remaining schedule. They have 21 games with first division clubs, but 12 of them are in Ebbets Field and they have 10 games left with their most favorite foe, the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Milwaukee has the most home games left, 47, and the most away games, 25. The Braves also have the fewest against first division clubs, 17. But they have to play 12 more with St. Louis and the Cardinals always have been tough for Milwaukee.

Nine games remain between the Giants and Dodgers, six of them in Brooklyn. The Giants also have 12 left with fourth place Philadelphia and five with Milwaukee.

Wiltwyck Golfers Cop Catskill League Title

Wiltwyck Golf Club swingers have won the first Catskill Mountain Golf League title with a decisive, 8-4, triumph over Woodstock on the village links.

The Wiltwyckians won three of four best-ball matches in Sunday's crucial test to nail down the bunting.

They now have a 3-0 record, with every other club charged with at least two losses. Next Sunday's final matches are just so much window dressing for the league's first year of activity.

Daley Fires Eagle
Bob Daley, Wiltwyck captain, and Harold Van Aken embellished the Wiltwyck triumph with a couple of sparkling shots. And each of the four Wiltwyck best-ball totals shattered par.

Daley crumpled Lew Worsham's famous wedge shot in last year's Tam O'Shanter tournament by holing out from 100 yards for an eagle-2 on Woodstock's eighth hole.

Van Aken chipped into the cup on the 18th from 30 feet, and off the green, for a birdie-3 that decided the match in his foursome.

Byrnes-Van Aken Hit 66
Harry Byrnes and Bill Van Aken, who have been blistering area courses with sub-par best-ball totals, needed a 66 to beat the No. 1 Wiltwyck tandem of Dick Davenport and Bill Newkirk, who fashioned a 69.

J. Watson Bailey and Roy Vogt of Wiltwyck fired a 68 best ball to upend Bill Waterous and Boyer Gonzales, 3-0. The losers had a two-over-par 72.

Wiltwyck's Whiz Kids—Harold Van Aken and Ronnie Marks fashioned a 68 to triumph over Allen Waterous and Norman Foster, 2½ to ½, with the losers matching par figures.

Maurice Davenport and Bob Daley clicked for a 68 which downed Bill Stifter and Charles J. Turck, 2½ to ½. The losers had a par 70.

Results of the Twaalfskill-Catskill match were not available but they had no bearing on the race for first place.

In next Sunday's final matches, Twaalfskill goes to Woodstock and Wiltwyck is at Catskill.

Chez Emile Grabs First Place as Subway Grill Forfeits to Destroyers

Kaplan Bag Co.	6	Hercules	11

Cedar Rest	3	Bence's Tavern	5
Alpine	2	Gene's Bar & Grill	3

Chez Emile moved into first place in the torrid National Division of the City Softball League by whipping Kaplan Bag, 10-6, yesterday, while Subway Grill, season long leaders, were involved in an unprecedented forfeit to the Destroyer A.C.

The Grillmen, who looked like sure bets for the divisional crown two weeks ago, were trailing Frank Boyce and the Destroyers 13-2 when Umpire Ed Snyder declared a forfeit in favor of the Destroyers for what he termed "stalling tactics" on the part of the Subways.

The combination of events put Chez Emile ahead by a half margin, with 15 wins and 3 losses to 15 and 4 for Subway.

Rapp's Bolster Lead
Rapp's Express cemented its first place position in the American league with a 9-7 squeaker over the runnerup Skyline squad.

Perry's Rest walloped Bence's Tavern, 11-4, with a nine-run rally in the second. In the other game, Hercules tripped the American Legion, 8-4.

Billy Anderson and Leroy Williams clouted homers in the Destroyers' surprise rout of the Subways. They lathered Tom Spada and Joe Amato for 12 hits. Walker Lindsay and Boyce yielded six hits. Tom Spada hit a homer for the Subways. James Lindsay cracked two singles and a triple for the winners.

B. Scheffel Stars
Bud Scheffel powered a double, triple and homer for a "3 for 3" performance to pace Chez Emile's win over Kaplan Bag.

The winners made 13 hits off Danny Bash. Ben Freer yielded 10, including Basch's double and two singles.

Ronnie Scheffel slammed a double and two singles and Fred

Schryver had a single, triple and homer for Chez Emile.

Steltz Hero For Rapp's
Ken Steltz was the batting hero for Rapp's 9-7 squeaker over Skyline. With Rapp's trailing, 7-6 in the sixth, with two outs and two men aboard, Steltz carried veteran Ed Lowe to a 3 and 2 count before he hit to deep left center for a three-run homer.

Jim Fuller hit a homer and two singles for Skyline. Tex Brown rapped two doubles and three singles for Skyline.

Slover Stops Bence's
Bob Slover breezed to an impressive 8-hit win over Bence's and had easy going after Perry's presented him with a 9-0 lead in the second inning.

The winners raked Joe Venuti for 13 hits, including a pair of homers and single by Tony Musto. Slover aided his own cause with four singles in five trips to the plate. Venuti and Tom Goloski slammed three hits each for Bence's.

Tom Ruzzi stopped the American Legion powerhouse with six hits for Hercules. Four of the blows, two singles, a double and triple went to Ray Lindhurst.

John Grube paced the Powder-men's 10-hit attack on Charlie Bock with a homer and two singles. B. Hastings went "3 for 3", two singles and a double.

Dodgers Rip Yankees, 9-6 In Esopus LL

Three Dodger pitchers combined to hold the Yankees to three hits for a 9-6 victory in the Esopus Legion Little League yesterday.

Although limited to six hits by Bill Boss and Al Christopher, the Dodgers led 6-0 at the end of three and 9-1 in the fourth.

Matt Jones, who played three positions, led the Dodgers with a double and triple. Ray Hoverson rapped two singles. Christopher hit a double for the Yankees.

Report Landy Ran Big Race With Severe Cut in Foot

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 10 (P)—Did John Landy, Australia's premier miler, run the "miracle mile" of the British Empire games here last Saturday with four stitches holding a deep cut in his right foot closed?

Landy, who ran second to Dr. Roger Bannister of England in the "miracle mile," said last night it wasn't so, that it was "completely and utterly silly" for anybody to think he could run under these circumstances.

Dr. Ken Young of the British Columbia Health Service said a member of his staff doctored a "nasty gash" on the sole of Landy's foot Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Joining the "Landy had a bad foot club" were Bannister; Andy O'Brien, sports editor of the Montreal Star; and Jack Sullivan, sports editor for the Canadian Press.

Bannister won the "miracle mile" in 3:58.8 with a final spurt that put him across the finish line some five yards ahead of Landy, who had led most of the way. Landy was timed in 3:59.6.

O'Brien broke the story in a copyrighted article in the Star yesterday. He said Landy suffered from a shover and onto a photographic flash bulb.

The Montreal reporter said Landy told him of the injury to his foot but swore him to secrecy "because it would sound like an alibi" and "I can't let the crowd down."

Landy promptly denied O'Brien's report.

But the curly-headed Australian refused to let reporters see his foot or to let photographers take pictures of them.

Sullivan came out with the flat statement that "Landy ran the mile of the century" with a cut right foot.

Bannister, contacted at Empire Village late last night, said Landy told him a week ago of the cut, but "he kept right on training, so it couldn't have been too serious."

No Dog's Life

Grand Rapids, Mich. (P)—"Buster" the Dalmatian dog who tried out as mascot with the fire department sits forlornly in the humane society shelter, a victim of technological unemployment. It isn't Buster's fault, firemen said he qualified for the job. He even hopped up onto the seat of the aerial ladder truck when the fire bell rang. But then firemen looked around them. The environment wasn't right for Buster. Brick and pavement completely surrounded the downtown station. "Not even a place to bury a bone," they said as they bid Buster goodbye.

Kramer to Coach Future Cup Stars

New York, Aug. 10 (P)—The U. S. Lawn Tennis Association's junior Davis Cup committee said today eight young players had been selected for the squad to be coached and directed by Jack Kramer.

The players are Jon Douglas, Santa Monica, Calif., and Myron Franks, Los Angeles, the USLTA junior Doubles champions last year; Al and David Harum, Coral Gables, Fla.; John Lesch, Los Angeles; Barry McKay, Dayton, Ohio; Gerald Moss, Modesto, Calif., and Edward Rubinoff, Miami Beach, Fla. Moss is the present U. S. Junior singles and Doubles champion.

Kramer has volunteered to coach the squad until the National championships begin Aug. 28 at Forest Hills.

New Tennis Policy No Windfall for Stars

Newport, R. I., Aug. 10 (P)—Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, Davis Cup player and ranked No. 2 in the United States, said today the U. S. Law Tennis Association's liberalized rule permitting amateurs to represent sport goods firms, isn't making and American netmen self-supporting.

Seixas said that since the rule was changed amateurs haven't been swamped with offers from sporting goods concerns.

So far, Bernie Barten, of San Angelo, Tex., and Eddie Moylan, of Trenton, N. J., are the only amateurs pushing sports products for pay. Other players, he believes, could obtain similar jobs but do not take them because "being a top tennis player requires all play and no work."

"Our sporting goods companies will give a name player a job selling, but, naturally, they expect him to work at it," Seixas said. "He has to sell like any other salesman. That's why Moylan is not here this week. He has to work."

Handyman Fined $25 For Assaulting Maid

A 47-year-old handyman at the Grand Mountain Hotel, Greenfield Park, was fined $25 this morning by Justice of the Peace Herbert Poppel of the town of Wawarsing for assaulting a chambermaid.

The handyman, Walter K. Myers, 168 106th street, Jamaica, L. I., was arrested by state police of the Ellenville station about midnight on a charge of assault third degree.

Drusilla Young, 31, of 115 141st street, New York, was treated at Veterans Memorial Hospital, Ellenville, for multiple lacerations and abrasions, troopers reported.

Touhy Denies He served six years of a 10-year federal sentence for a million dollar whisky warehouse receipts fraud.

Judge Barnes, in granting Touhy a writ of habeas corpus, said that the one time beer baron's conviction was procured by perjured testimony. He said that Circuit Judge Thomas A. Courtney, who was state's attorney at the time of Touhy's kidnapping trial, "must be held responsible for the actions of Chief Investigator Daniel A. Gilbert in causing perjured testimony to be presented to the jury that convicted Roger Touhy."

Touhy's lawyers have contended that Al Capone's old crime syndicate got Factor to frame Touhy so that Capone could seize various labor unions then dominated by Touhy.

Results From Conspiracy

The lawyers, in their original writ filed in 1948, charged that Touhy's conviction resulted from a conspiracy between Factor and law enforcement officials.

Judge Barnes ruled that the state statute under which Touhy was sentenced to 199 years in the prison break is unconstitutional and that his sentence is therefore void.

Touhy, tears in his eyes as he left the federal building, told reporters he plans to leave Chicago and start a manufacturing business, turning out a fishing tackle on which he said he has applied for a patent.

He said he holds no grudge against anyone for his lone confinement.

"They have their consciences to live with," he said.

Bond Is Posted

Touhy left the courtroom after his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Alesia, posted $10,000 bond to guarantee his appearance in event of a governmental appeal. Attorney General Latham Castle ordered an immediate appeal to the U. S. Court of Appeals.

Touhy said he was eager to see his wife and two sons. He declined to say where his family lived.

Factor, now living in a lavish hillside home above Beverly Hills, Calif., refused to talk to reporters.

His wife told newsmen that her husband became "very nervous" on hearing of Touhy's court-ordered release.

When they first arrived in southern California in 1949 the Factors lived in a modest apartment. About two years ago they built and moved into the large, modern home.

3. The AEC would be required, for five years, to give preference, in granting licenses to manufacture commercial atomic equipment to concerns which agreed to share patents with the AEC would have authority to require these plants to manufacture research equipment. A court upon finding a patent being used to further a monopoly, could order that it be shared with all qualified applicants.

4. The AEC, subject to congressional approval, could build full-scale atomic plants to demonstrate the feasibility of various reactors in producing power. Electricity from these plants would be sold to government agencies, public and private bodies and, "insofar as practicable," preference must be given to cooperatives and publicly owned utilities.

5. The President is authorized to disclose information on the atomic weapons and on civilian external characteristics of atomic weapons and on civilian power to foreign nations guaranteeing against secrecy leakage. Agreements for this purpose, including negotiations for a global pool to help backward nations, would require separate congressional approval.

The premier said that 2 to 3 per cent of the nation's economy is weighing down the entire economic structure. By taking firm action now, he asserted, an entirely new impetus could be given to the country's economy.

Carl T. Curtis is in a field of seven seeking the GOP nomination.

Three Democrats are competing for their party's nomination to the 6-year term, though Nebraska normally is strongly Republican.

A total of 31 candidates—24 Republicans and 7 Democrats—are entered in the Senate contests. The present Nebraska senators, serving by appointment, are not seeking election.

The other Senate posts to be filled in November are for the last three months of Griswold's term and the remaining four years of Butler's term.

Will Name Nominees

Both parties also will name nominees for governor. Two of the state's four House members face primary fights.

Balloting is expected to follow the pattern of previous years, with a turnout of up to 225,000 forecast by Secretary of State Frank Marsh.

A light vote is predicted in Idaho where Sen. Dworshak did not campaign against his lone challenger in the Republican primary. Almost all the interest centers in the race for the Democratic Senate nomination.

Entrants are Taylor, State Sen. Claude Burtenshaw, a college professor, and Alvin McCormick of Lewiston.

Idaho's two House members are without primary opposition. In the governor races, three Republicans and four Democrats are entered.

Gov. Cherry of Arkansas led three opponents in the Democratic primary July 27 but lacked a majority. His second term bid is challenged in the runoff by Orval Faubus, publisher of a weekly newspaper at Huntville.

Record Vote Expected

A record vote was expected to climax the runoff campaign, one of the wildest in recent Arkansas history. Nomination is equivalent to election in the Democratic balloting.

In Delaware's Democratic convention, Frear is opposed for renomination to a second Senate term by Supreme Court Justice James M. Tunnell, Jr. Supporters of Tunnell predicted victory to day after one of the 60 delegates from Frear's home county announced he'd vote for Tunnell.

CAGE PLAYING—Down into the Persian Gulf, off Abu Dhabi, Iran, go these divers searching for oil. The underwater elevator which lowers them 250 feet below the surface is used for more than transportation. When the sharks get playful, the divers enter the cage as a safety precaution.

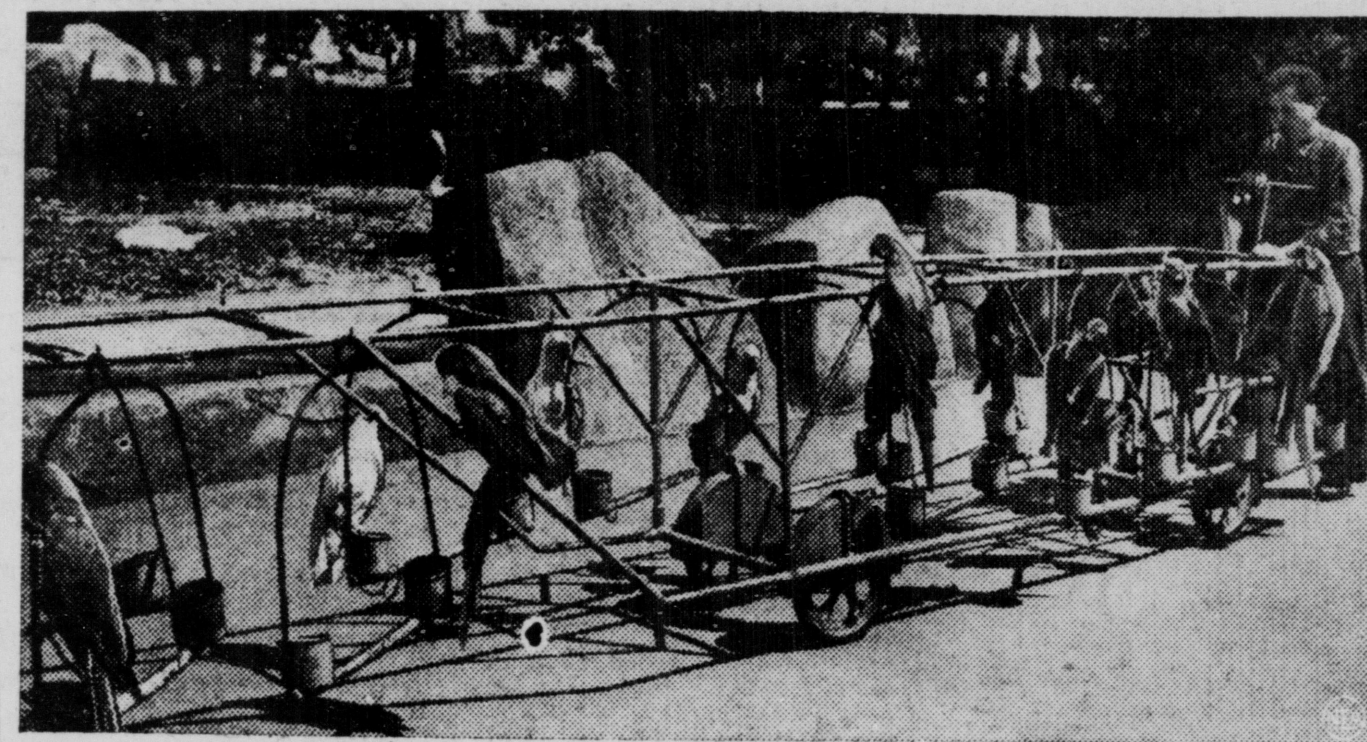

THE BOY GREW OLDER—Seldom photographed these days, Arthur MacArthur, 16-year-old son of Gen. and Mrs. Douglas MacArthur, is pictured on the lawn of a Santa Barbara, Calif., hotel during his current Western tour. Born in Manila, he had never been in the U. S. until his father was ordered home by President Truman during the Korean war. Inset shows him on ill-fated Corregidor Island in the Philippines in 1942, two months before the Japs overran the fortress.

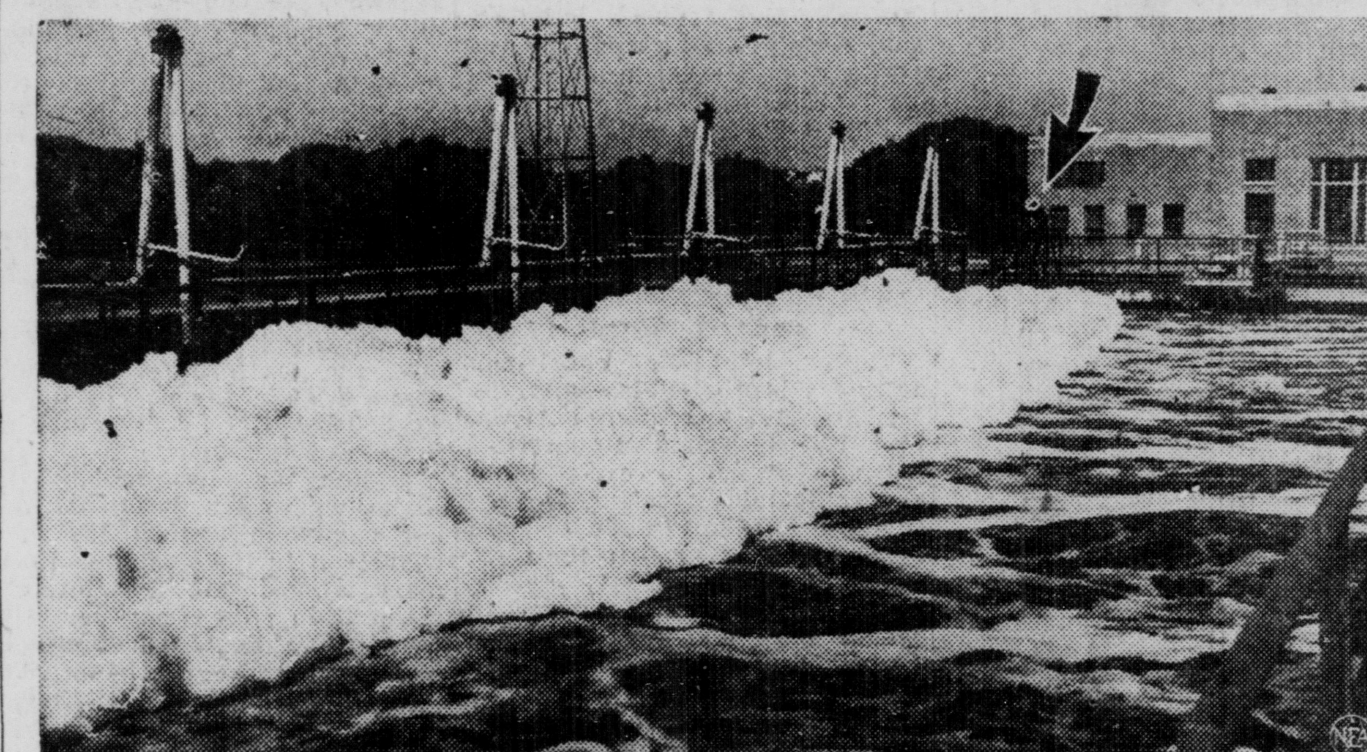

LEAVING THEIR CARS BEHIND—Competitors in the West German Soap Box Derby of 1954 leave their cars momentarily to attend ceremonies before race at Duisburg.

WHALE OF A TIME—Islanders in boats drive small whales into shallow water at Thorshavn, principal town of Faeroe Islands, in North Atlantic between Iceland and Shetlands.

POLLY WANT A TRACTOR?—Parrots in Paris get a free ride through the Vincennes zoo on this open-air bus designed strictly for the birds. It's one of the zoo's most popular attractions.

IT ALL COMES OUT IN THE WASH—When mama does the family washing with some of today's free-sudsing detergents, employees of the Canton, Ohio, sewage disposal plant see the results a few hours later. This picture shows the foam that collects in just one of the aeration tanks at the plant. One man (arrow) has practically a full-time job attempting to wash away the tidal wave of suds with a hose.

'COPTER AIDS POLICE—New York City police use a helicopter to lift a "victim" out of the water to be transported to safety. The rescue was conducted by members to show how they are using their latest equipment.
